

Terex Parts

Terex Parts - Terex Forklifts stands by their mission to supply a reliable and cost effective product line. They take pride in manufacturing equipment that improves their customers' return on investment. Through numerous divestures and acquisitions planned to expand the product offering, Terex has a short time ago expanded dramatically. They have enhanced their geographic coverage to enable them to deliver quality standards and value for their broad consumer base.

Remaining a aggressive player in the industrialized equipment sector, Terex is forming a franchise under the Terex name brand. The company is incorporating their earlier brand names for some of their items in conjunction operations the Terex brand for a smooth transition process. Presently, Terex products are principally marketed under the Terex name. A number of of the following historic brand names and transitional names include: ATC, Amida, American Truck Company, American, Advance, Bartell, Benford, Bendini, Bid-Well, CMI, CMI-Cifali, CMI Johnson-Ross, Cedarapids, Canica, Comedil, Demag, ELJay, Franna, Fermac, Finlay, Fuchs, Genie, Hi-Ranger, Jaques, Load King, Morrison, O&K, Peiner, PPM, Powerscreen, Pegson, Reedrill, Schaeff, Simplicity, Standard Havens, Tatra, TerexLift, Telelect and Unit Rig.

Terex has had a constant evolution cycle. In 1995 Terex acquired PPM Cranes, in 1996, then Terex divested Clark Materials Handling. In 1997 Terex acquires Telelect and Simon-RO. BPI Handlers in Baraga, Michigan is also acquired this same year.

Terex promptly grew their mining and Crane business with the acquisition of O&K mining, TerexLift, Gru Comedil, American Crane and Peiner. A Light Construction business soon followed in 1999 when Terex acquired Amida, Bartell and Benford. They soon became a leader within the crushing and screening industry by acquiring Cedarapids, Powerscreen, BL Pegson, Re-Tech, and Finlay. Franna, Kooi and Princeton crane suppliers were also added to Terex in 1999.

By the year 2000, Terex expanded into the Compact Equipment market, acquiring Fermac who is a manufacturer specializing in tractor loader backhoes. Their Light Construction operations continued to expand operations with the acquisition of Coleman Engineering. This same year, Terex divested Moffett, Kooi and Princeton.

In 2001, Terex expanded their Roadbuilding division business with the acquisitions of CMI, Bid-Well, Load King, Atlas and Jaques.

A couple of of the acquisitions that took place in 2002 made it easier for Terex to grow into a leader in their respective categories. Advance Mixer helped thrust Terex into the concrete mixing market, while Demag helped Terex Cranes become a leader in the crane market. Acquiring German makers Fuchs and Schaeff positioned Terex in a top position in the Compact Equipment class. Genie became a leading maker of Aerial Work Platforms. This busy year was completed operations with the purchases of EPAC and Pacific Utility, which offered company-owned distribution for Terex Utilities.

A company called Tatra was purchased in 2003. This company produced heavy duty vehicles for armed forces and off-road industrial purposes. Buying Combatel and Commercial Body the same year allowed Terex to continue to expand its company-owned Terex Utilities distribution.

In the year 2004, Terex purchased a manufacturer of surface drilling equipment utilized in mining, construction and utility industries, called Reedrill. Also in the same year, Noble CE (formerly known as Terex Mexico) was acquired by Terex. They manufacture high capacity surface mining trucks and also produce many components for other Terex businesses.
